

PERCIVAL BAKER GEN. BURN BANKERS HE CUBB RAID ON MAY

First Meeting of Campaign of Non-Mormon Delegates to Republican Convention Resent Church Slate-Making.

CANDIDATES FOR LOWER HOUSE TO TALK BRIEFLY

Church Republicans Arrange Slate on Which Gentiles Are Minus Quantity.

Federation of Labor hall, corner of State and Fourth South streets, should be filled to its capacity tonight (Saturday), when the first American rally of the campaign will be held. The candidates for representative in this lower house will make five-minute speeches, and there will be a programme of excellent music.

The Church Republicans will establish county headquarters Tuesday. Negotiations are now in progress for rooms in the Bell building, South Main street. If these cannot be had, the headquarters will be established in another building in that vicinity.

The suggestion has been made, and has received the approval of the leaders of the Church Republican party, that a part of the postoffice, in the federal building, be fenced off for Church Republican headquarters. Should this be decided upon, a wireless telegraph system between the headquarters and the Bee Hive home would be installed, and an underground passage way to connect with the assay office, and secret passages arranged between the offices of the internal revenue collector, the United States marshal, and the district attorney's office.

The arrangement would be ideal and would save much trouble in communication and speedy means of communication.

Pending the selection of new quarters, the Bee Hives are holding forth in room 226, Cullen hotel.

None but Mormons need apply at the Republican so-called county convention next Monday in the Salt Lake theater. A Mormon slate was fixed up Friday that is said to contain no Gentile names.

The Gentile representation on this slate ticket is so minute as to be undetectable save with the use of a microscope. Following is the slate of the Mormon church:

County commissioners—J. W. Burton, O. W. Carlson (both Mormons), making the best solid Mormon.

Clerk—Mrs. Margaret Zane Wiltcher, Gentile.

Treasurer—John Greenbeck, Mormon.

Recorder—F. J. A. Jacques, Mormon.

Auditor—Roscoe Vign, Gentile.

Surveyor—James Cannon, Mormon.

Assessor—Amos Caldwell, Mormon.

Attorney—Moses Davis, Mormon, or, in the event of a contingency, I. E. Willey, Mormon.

Senators—W. N. Williams, Mormon; Benner S. Smith, Gentile.

Representatives—John James, Mormon; W. A. Tisdale, Mormon; J. E. McKim, Mormon; Claude V. Russell, Mormon; T. L. Holman, Gentile; John Currie, Gentile; John Pace, Mormon; Harry B. Cole, Gentile; Daniel McFarland, Mormon; Claude T. Barnes, Mormon. In the event that there is a slip-up on one of these slates, C. C. Crapo, Mormon, will be nominated.

The division of the legislative ticket has been made as follows: James, third precinct; Tisdale, fourth; McKim, fifth; Currie and McKim, third; Holman, fourth; Barnes, fifth; Cole, fifth; McKim, Granger, Crapo, Sandy.

In framing the slate the Mormon church declared positively that it must have the clerk and county attorney, or else it would support the Republican ticket. The church is in desperate fear that with a non-Mormon in the county attorney's office and county clerk, the church's office, polygamy, old and new would have a harder sledding than it has been having.

The way lightning came to strike Davis is quite a story in itself. The federal clerk did not want Lyon, is the way they tell it, and Davis was not developed, however, that Willey was not particularly strong, and so Davis was taken up. The federal clerk has a special liking for Davis, nor Davis for the federal clerk, so Davis occupies the unique position of being against both the federal clerk and Lyon.

Neph United States Centennial Jensen, a great up-and-coming to county attorney, but he was not in the race. Neph United States Centennial wanted to be nominated, and they nominated him by promising him the sheriff's office, polygamy, old and new would have a harder sledding than it has been having.

"Fussy" Jimmy Anderson is again said to be not a man of his word. "Fussy" on Thursday promised Fred Bussett, treasurer, but on Friday "Fussy" informed Greenbeck, and thus another solemn pact was broken with characteristic facility.

Brigham Clegh, who has been in the house before, was given assurance that he would be one of the chosen again, and when the sad, sad words were spoken, he was not merely a cipher with the ring rubbed out. Brigham immediately became an insurgent and is now insuring to beat all outsiders.

Additional candidates, or to be more precise, near-candidates, have bobbed up for Church Republican honors. H. I. Hansen is one of the misbegotten aspirants for the lower house and H. I. Hansen is the Fourth precinct is another. Sam C. Park is a candidate for the senate.

Jody Eldridge and Jack Greenbeck were out jockeying yesterday. This incident is taken to be significant of the fact that Greenbeck has removed his obstacles in his path for the renomination as county treasurer.

Americans should begin to bear in mind that "You can't vote if you don't register." The registry agents will be at their posts on Tuesday and Wednesday, October 11 and 12. For the electors who have removed their residence since voting last time, the district has followed, and to find out where the registry agent will enroll his name. Telephone calls to American party headquarters, bringing forth all desired information with regard to registration.

Every American who wants to meet the men who will represent Salt Lake county in the next legislature should attend the big rally at Federation of Labor hall this evening.

A meeting of American party candidates was held last evening in the rooms at headquarters. The candidates met with David C. Dunbar, chairman of the county central committee. All of the candidates outlined a plan of work for the following week, and talked over matters generally with the men who will be in charge of affairs in this county after next New Year's day.

Frank R. Christensen, secretary of the county central committee, presided at a meeting of the district chairmen. All of the district chairmen were present and the chairmen discussed the campaign and the progress of the work up to this time.

The central committee will meet on Monday evening, at which time the vacancies now existing on the county ticket will be filled. Mr. Young says there is available material in plenty and that the men named will be strong vote getters.

Muenchener Loren Braun—the beverage for run-down constitutions and nervous disorders; the finest brew in the world. On tap at the Heidelberg.

WILL PRESENT DEMANDS AS AN ORGANIZED BODY

Propose to Hold Meeting Before Monday Morning to Fix Little Slate Themselves.

When it became noised about Friday night that an all-Mormon slate had been fixed up by the leaders of the church Republicans in this county, a movement was started which had for its object the blocking of the little game sought to be pulled off by the framers of the all-Mormon ticket. This movement promises to be such a one as will make itself felt. The proposition sprung last night is that all the Gentile delegates get together between now and Monday morning and fix up just as big a slate as the Mormons have.

The plan is to hold a meeting of the non-Mormon delegates selected last night at a time and place to be fixed later. At that meeting it is proposed to select a ticket that contains many Gentile candidates as the slate fixed by the Mormons contains Mormon candidates.

The Gentiles will then take their line list to the convention. They will say to the Mormon friends that they are determined to have something approaching a square deal, at any rate, and they will ask the Mormon leaders what they propose to do about it.

Upon the answer made by the fixers of the Mormon slate, the Gentiles will be determined to have something approaching a square deal, at any rate, and they will ask the Mormon leaders what they propose to do about it.

Upon the answer made by the fixers of the Mormon slate, the Gentiles will be determined to have something approaching a square deal, at any rate, and they will ask the Mormon leaders what they propose to do about it.

Upon the answer made by the fixers of the Mormon slate, the Gentiles will be determined to have something approaching a square deal, at any rate, and they will ask the Mormon leaders what they propose to do about it.

Upon the answer made by the fixers of the Mormon slate, the Gentiles will be determined to have something approaching a square deal, at any rate, and they will ask the Mormon leaders what they propose to do about it.

Upon the answer made by the fixers of the Mormon slate, the Gentiles will be determined to have something approaching a square deal, at any rate, and they will ask the Mormon leaders what they propose to do about it.

Upon the answer made by the fixers of the Mormon slate, the Gentiles will be determined to have something approaching a square deal, at any rate, and they will ask the Mormon leaders what they propose to do about it.

Upon the answer made by the fixers of the Mormon slate, the Gentiles will be determined to have something approaching a square deal, at any rate, and they will ask the Mormon leaders what they propose to do about it.

Upon the answer made by the fixers of the Mormon slate, the Gentiles will be determined to have something approaching a square deal, at any rate, and they will ask the Mormon leaders what they propose to do about it.

Upon the answer made by the fixers of the Mormon slate, the Gentiles will be determined to have something approaching a square deal, at any rate, and they will ask the Mormon leaders what they propose to do about it.

Upon the answer made by the fixers of the Mormon slate, the Gentiles will be determined to have something approaching a square deal, at any rate, and they will ask the Mormon leaders what they propose to do about it.

Upon the answer made by the fixers of the Mormon slate, the Gentiles will be determined to have something approaching a square deal, at any rate, and they will ask the Mormon leaders what they propose to do about it.

Upon the answer made by the fixers of the Mormon slate, the Gentiles will be determined to have something approaching a square deal, at any rate, and they will ask the Mormon leaders what they propose to do about it.

Upon the answer made by the fixers of the Mormon slate, the Gentiles will be determined to have something approaching a square deal, at any rate, and they will ask the Mormon leaders what they propose to do about it.

Upon the answer made by the fixers of the Mormon slate, the Gentiles will be determined to have something approaching a square deal, at any rate, and they will ask the Mormon leaders what they propose to do about it.

Upon the answer made by the fixers of the Mormon slate, the Gentiles will be determined to have something approaching a square deal, at any rate, and they will ask the Mormon leaders what they propose to do about it.

Upon the answer made by the fixers of the Mormon slate, the Gentiles will be determined to have something approaching a square deal, at any rate, and they will ask the Mormon leaders what they propose to do about it.

Upon the answer made by the fixers of the Mormon slate, the Gentiles will be determined to have something approaching a square deal, at any rate, and they will ask the Mormon leaders what they propose to do about it.

Upon the answer made by the fixers of the Mormon slate, the Gentiles will be determined to have something approaching a square deal, at any rate, and they will ask the Mormon leaders what they propose to do about it.

Upon the answer made by the fixers of the Mormon slate, the Gentiles will be determined to have something approaching a square deal, at any rate, and they will ask the Mormon leaders what they propose to do about it.

Upon the answer made by the fixers of the Mormon slate, the Gentiles will be determined to have something approaching a square deal, at any rate, and they will ask the Mormon leaders what they propose to do about it.

Upon the answer made by the fixers of the Mormon slate, the Gentiles will be determined to have something approaching a square deal, at any rate, and they will ask the Mormon leaders what they propose to do about it.

Upon the answer made by the fixers of the Mormon slate, the Gentiles will be determined to have something approaching a square deal, at any rate, and they will ask the Mormon leaders what they propose to do about it.

Young Man Addicted to Use of Morphine or Chloral Kills Himself.

George Delmont, the young man picked up by the police near the Otto Wilkison plant, at Ninth North and Sixth West streets, at 11 o'clock Thursday night, and who was suffering from an overdose of morphine or chloral, died Friday morning at St. Mark's hospital, where he was removed from the police emergency hospital at 8 o'clock. For nearly three hours early Friday morning, Dr. R. H. Sprague worked at the young man, but an endeavor to save his life, but all efforts were futile.

When Delmont was brought to police headquarters he was still able to talk, but he was in a dazed condition and his statements were somewhat incoherent. He gave his name as Delmont, but it was afterward learned that he meant Delmont. He said that he had met two strangers during the afternoon, and that they had started drinking. He lost consciousness, and as his money was missing, he was at first supposed that he had been drugged and robbed.

Investigation developed that Delmont was a young man, who gave his age as 26 years, but whose relatives in this part of the country. It is stated he had a wife and child in the east, but that report has not been verified.

The police are now convinced that Delmont's death was due to an overdose of drug self-administered. They have learned that he was addicted to the use of morphine and it is presumed that while under the influence of liquor he took too much morphine which resulted in his death. Further investigation is being conducted.

The young man, who gave his age as 26 years, but whose relatives in this part of the country. It is stated he had a wife and child in the east, but that report has not been verified.

The police are now convinced that Delmont's death was due to an overdose of drug self-administered. They have learned that he was addicted to the use of morphine and it is presumed that while under the influence of liquor he took too much morphine which resulted in his death. Further investigation is being conducted.

The young man, who gave his age as 26 years, but whose relatives in this part of the country. It is stated he had a wife and child in the east, but that report has not been verified.

The police are now convinced that Delmont's death was due to an overdose of drug self-administered. They have learned that he was addicted to the use of morphine and it is presumed that while under the influence of liquor he took too much morphine which resulted in his death. Further investigation is being conducted.

The young man, who gave his age as 26 years, but whose relatives in this part of the country. It is stated he had a wife and child in the east, but that report has not been verified.

The police are now convinced that Delmont's death was due to an overdose of drug self-administered. They have learned that he was addicted to the use of morphine and it is presumed that while under the influence of liquor he took too much morphine which resulted in his death. Further investigation is being conducted.

The young man, who gave his age as 26 years, but whose relatives in this part of the country. It is stated he had a wife and child in the east, but that report has not been verified.

The police are now convinced that Delmont's death was due to an overdose of drug self-administered. They have learned that he was addicted to the use of morphine and it is presumed that while under the influence of liquor he took too much morphine which resulted in his death. Further investigation is being conducted.

The young man, who gave his age as 26 years, but whose relatives in this part of the country. It is stated he had a wife and child in the east, but that report has not been verified.

The police are now convinced that Delmont's death was due to an overdose of drug self-administered. They have learned that he was addicted to the use of morphine and it is presumed that while under the influence of liquor he took too much morphine which resulted in his death. Further investigation is being conducted.

The young man, who gave his age as 26 years, but whose relatives in this part of the country. It is stated he had a wife and child in the east, but that report has not been verified.

The police are now convinced that Delmont's death was due to an overdose of drug self-administered. They have learned that he was addicted to the use of morphine and it is presumed that while under the influence of liquor he took too much morphine which resulted in his death. Further investigation is being conducted.

The young man, who gave his age as 26 years, but whose relatives in this part of the country. It is stated he had a wife and child in the east, but that report has not been verified.

The police are now convinced that Delmont's death was due to an overdose of drug self-administered. They have learned that he was addicted to the use of morphine and it is presumed that while under the influence of liquor he took too much morphine which resulted in his death. Further investigation is being conducted.

The young man, who gave his age as 26 years, but whose relatives in this part of the country. It is stated he had a wife and child in the east, but that report has not been verified.

The police are now convinced that Delmont's death was due to an overdose of drug self-administered. They have learned that he was addicted to the use of morphine and it is presumed that while under the influence of liquor he took too much morphine which resulted in his death. Further investigation is being conducted.

The young man, who gave his age as 26 years, but whose relatives in this part of the country. It is stated he had a wife and child in the east, but that report has not been verified.

The police are now convinced that Delmont's death was due to an overdose of drug self-administered. They have learned that he was addicted to the use of morphine and it is presumed that while under the influence of liquor he took too much morphine which resulted in his death. Further investigation is being conducted.

The young man, who gave his age as 26 years, but whose relatives in this part of the country. It is stated he had a wife and child in the east, but that report has not been verified.

The police are now convinced that Delmont's death was due to an overdose of drug self-administered. They have learned that he was addicted to the use of morphine and it is presumed that while under the influence of liquor he took too much morphine which resulted in his death. Further investigation is being conducted.

The young man, who gave his age as 26 years, but whose relatives in this part of the country. It is stated he had a wife and child in the east, but that report has not been verified.

The police are now convinced that Delmont's death was due to an overdose of drug self-administered. They have learned that he was addicted to the use of morphine and it is presumed that while under the influence of liquor he took too much morphine which resulted in his death. Further investigation is being conducted.

The young man, who gave his age as 26 years, but whose relatives in this part of the country. It is stated he had a wife and child in the east, but that report has not been verified.

The police are now convinced that Delmont's death was due to an overdose of drug self-administered. They have learned that he was addicted to the use of morphine and it is presumed that while under the influence of liquor he took too much morphine which resulted in his death. Further investigation is being conducted.

Col. George B. Squires, Insurance Commissioner for Utah, Passes Away.

RESIDENT OF UTAH
FOR TWENTY-ONE YEARS

Heart Trouble and Bright's Disease Responsible for His Death.

Colonel George B. Squires, insurance commissioner for Utah, a Grand Army veteran and prominent citizen, beloved by all who knew him, died Friday morning at his home, 1263 East Twelfth South street, after a ten-months' illness of heart trouble and Bright's disease. Although forced to return from California several months ago by his failure to recuperate in the balmy southern air, Colonel Squires' condition was by no means regarded as critical and his death came as a great shock.

About ten months ago Colonel Squires became seriously ill and he spent all of last winter in southern California, in the hope of recovering his health. The change in climate, however, did little to help him, and the summer the veteran returned to Salt Lake. He passed away at 5:15 o'clock Friday morning at his home in Sugar House ward. A widow and three children by a former marriage survive.

Prominent for many years in politics and business lines, and especially vigilant in the interests of the city and county, Colonel Squires' efforts through the years of the Grand Army of the Republic were brought to Salt Lake last year, when he was elected to the position of insurance commissioner.

Colonel Squires was born in Pittsfield, Berkshire county, Mass., on September 25, 1841, being the son of Henry and Ann Squires. He was educated in the Pittsfield public schools and when the civil war broke out he enlisted at the age of 24 in the 10th Maine Infantry, Connecticut volunteer infantry. This regiment engaged in action at the very close of the war, and Colonel Squires was shot in the right leg. He speedily recovered and rejoined his regiment.

On July 22, 1862, Colonel Squires was captured at Snicker's Gap, Va., and taken to the Richmond military prison, where he remained for some time. He was later released and returned to his home in Pittsfield, Mass., and from there to the parole camp at Kennesaw mountain. During his service Colonel Squires was promoted to the rank of corporal and was honorably discharged from the army at Chattanooga July 22, 1864. His title of "Colonel" was by brevet, and he became famous for his prominence in G. A. R. affairs.

Colonel Squires came to Utah in 1883 as special agent of land office. He was a member of the constitutional convention. Between 1892 and 1893 Colonel Squires was elected to the state legislature and later traveling state auditor and assistant secretary of state. He was in charge of the insurance matters of the state. On April 7, 1899, Colonel Squires received his commission as commissioner of insurance.

Since his illness Colonel Squires turned over the active duties of his office to William Done, who fell in a probability of the position being held thoroughly conversant as to its requirements. As a mark of respect to Colonel Squires the insurance commission was closed Friday, the doors being draped in mourning.

Organizes Howard Post. Colonel Squires was a past commander of the Rankin post, No. 19, G. A. R., of New York, past commander of P. S. Grant post, No. 27, department of New York, was judge advocate general of the national encampment of the G. A. R., on the staff of Lewis Wagner, in 1881-82, and under George W. Merrill, in 1882-83. He was assistant adjutant general of the department of New York in 1876-77. He was one of the early members of the George R. Maxwell post, No. 5, of Salt Lake, and the organizers of Howard post, this city.

Colonel Squires was organizer of the Salt Lake chapter of the Daughters of Veterans and to the members of that organization he was lovingly known as "Daddy."

On Thursday night Colonel Squires received a telegram from the convention of state insurance commissioners, in session at Mobile, Ala., expressing the regret of the convention over his illness and inability to attend, and wishing for his speedy and permanent recovery. To the Acting Commissioner, Howard post, this city.

Colonel Squires' funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Friday (Saturday) forenoon at St. Andrew's church, representatives of the G. A. R., Ladies' Auxiliary, insurance men, state officials and others.

The "Heidelberg" makes a specialty of supplying private families with genuine imported Muenchener beer, quarts and pints. Both phones.

J. H. Kent, Architect, 625 Newhouse building.

Another Suit Against the Salt Lake Beach Company for Injuries Sustained at the Hotel, Held for Trial Tonight at 8 o'clock.

A. S. Brown, Friday, brought suit against the resort in the district court to recover $1185 damages for injuries sustained in the accident. Brown says that he was one of the several persons leaving the place after the match, who was precipitated into the water. The fall bruised him and the exposure and nervous shock kept him in bed four days and from work seven days. Brown says that he lost clothes to the value of $15 by reason of his clothes being ruined. The rest of the $1185 he demands as general damages.

The resort company is charged with negligence in not providing safe floors.

Another suit against the Salt Lake Beach resort company for injuries sustained in the fall of the floor of the hippodrome at the hotel, match held there the night of May 12, this year, has made its appearance in the district court.

A. S. Brown, Friday, brought suit against the resort in the district court to recover $1185 damages for injuries sustained in the accident. Brown says that he was one of the several persons leaving the place after the match, who was precipitated into the water. The fall bruised him and the exposure and nervous shock kept him in bed four days and from work seven days. Brown says that he lost clothes to the value of $15 by reason of his clothes being ruined. The rest of the $1185 he demands as general damages.

The resort company is charged with negligence in not providing safe floors.

Another suit against the Salt Lake Beach resort company for injuries sustained in the fall of the floor of the hippodrome at the hotel, match held there the night of May 12, this year, has made its appearance in the district court.

A. S. Brown, Friday, brought suit against the resort in the district court to recover $1185 damages for injuries sustained in the accident. Brown says that he was one of the several persons leaving the place after the match, who was precipitated into the water. The fall bruised him and the exposure and nervous shock kept him in bed four days and from work seven days. Brown says that he lost clothes to the value of $15 by reason of his clothes being ruined. The rest of the $1185 he demands as general damages.

The resort company is charged with negligence in not providing safe floors.

Another suit against the Salt Lake Beach resort company for injuries sustained in the fall of the floor of the hippodrome at the hotel, match held there the night of May 12, this year, has made its appearance in the district court.

A. S. Brown, Friday, brought suit against the resort in the district court to recover $1185 damages for injuries sustained in the accident. Brown says that he was one of the several persons leaving the place after the match, who was precipitated into the water. The fall bruised him and the exposure and nervous shock kept him in bed four days and from work seven days. Brown says that he lost clothes to the value of $15 by reason of his clothes being ruined. The rest of the $1185 he demands as general damages.

The resort company is charged with negligence in not providing safe floors.

Another suit against the Salt Lake Beach resort company for injuries sustained in the fall of the floor of the hippodrome at the hotel, match held there the night of May 12, this year, has made its appearance in the district court.

A. S. Brown, Friday, brought suit against the resort in the district court to recover $1185 damages for injuries sustained in the accident. Brown says that he was one of the several persons leaving the place after the match, who was precipitated into the water. The fall bruised him and the exposure and nervous shock kept him in bed four days and from work seven days. Brown says that he lost clothes to the value of $15 by reason of his clothes being ruined. The rest of the $1185 he demands as general damages.

The resort company is charged with negligence in not providing safe floors.

Another suit against the Salt Lake Beach resort company for injuries sustained in the fall of the floor of the hippodrome at the hotel, match held there the night of May 12, this year, has made its appearance in the district court.

A. S. Brown, Friday, brought suit against the resort in the district court to recover $1185 damages for injuries sustained in the accident. Brown says that he was one of the several persons leaving the place after the match, who was precipitated into the water. The fall bruised him and the exposure and nervous shock kept him in bed four days and from work seven days. Brown says that he lost clothes to the value of $15 by reason of his clothes being ruined. The rest of the $1185 he demands as general damages.

The resort company is charged with negligence in not providing safe floors.

Another suit against the Salt Lake Beach resort company for injuries sustained in the fall of the floor of the hippodrome at the hotel, match held there the night of May 12, this year, has made its appearance in the district court.

A. S. Brown, Friday, brought suit against the resort in the district court to recover $1185 damages for injuries sustained in the accident. Brown says that he was one of the several persons leaving the place after the match, who was precipitated into the water. The fall bruised him and the exposure and nervous shock kept him in bed four days and from work seven days. Brown says that he lost clothes to the value of $15 by reason of his clothes being ruined. The rest of the $1185 he demands as general damages.

The resort company is charged with negligence in not providing safe floors.

Another suit against the Salt Lake Beach resort company for injuries sustained in the fall of the floor of the hippodrome at the hotel, match held there the night of May 12, this year, has made its appearance in the district court.

A. S. Brown, Friday, brought suit against the resort in the district court to recover $1185 damages for injuries sustained in the accident. Brown says that he was one of the several persons leaving the place after the match, who was precipitated into the water. The fall bruised him and the exposure and nervous shock kept him in bed four days and from work seven days. Brown says that he lost clothes to the value of $15 by reason of his clothes being ruined. The rest of the $1185 he demands as general damages.

The resort company is charged with negligence in not providing safe floors.

Another suit against the Salt Lake Beach resort company for injuries sustained in the fall of the floor of the hippodrome at the hotel, match held there the night of May 12, this year, has made its appearance in the district court.

A. S. Brown, Friday, brought suit against the resort in the district court to recover $1185 damages for injuries sustained in the accident. Brown says that he was one of the several persons leaving the place after the match, who was precipitated into the water. The fall bruised him and the exposure and nervous shock kept him in bed four days and from work seven days. Brown says that he lost clothes to the value of $15 by reason of his clothes being ruined. The rest of the $1185 he demands as general damages.

The resort company is charged with negligence in not providing safe floors.

Another suit against the Salt Lake Beach resort company for injuries sustained in the fall of the floor of the hippodrome at the hotel, match held there the night of May 12, this year, has made its appearance in the district court.

A. S. Brown, Friday, brought suit against the resort in the district court to recover $1185 damages for injuries sustained in the accident. Brown says that he was one of the several persons leaving the place after the match, who was precipitated into the water. The fall bruised him and the exposure and nervous shock kept him in bed four days and from work seven days. Brown says that he lost clothes to the value of $15 by reason of his clothes being ruined. The rest of the $1185 he demands as general damages.

The resort company is charged with negligence in not providing safe floors.

Another suit against the Salt Lake Beach resort company for injuries sustained in the fall of the floor of the hippodrome at the hotel, match held there the night of May 12, this year, has made its appearance in the district court.

A. S. Brown, Friday, brought suit against the resort in the district court to recover $1185 damages for injuries sustained in the accident. Brown says that he was one of the several persons leaving the place after the match, who was precipitated into the water. The fall bruised him and the exposure and nervous shock kept him in bed four days and from work seven days. Brown says that he lost clothes to the value of $15 by reason of his clothes being ruined. The rest of the $1185 he demands as general damages.